

Sandeep's Customary Canon at Year's End

[this year's edition being an impatient one, a dis-canon -
because of what still goes on & because of what must change]

2019

① ② ③

What the hell? Al - rea - dy a new year! What a - bout the one that's gone? The wi-shes, the pro - mi - ses are still wai - ting to be ful-filled Or, bet-ter e-ven, still kept Why this new year? Will sud-den-ly___ the world come to its sen-ses and be peace - ful? Will all the in-jus-ti-ces va-nish? Will our earth's fe-ver a-bate?

11

21

④ ⑤ ⑥

If this new year can do what the old ones could not then: Yes! Let bells toll and sparks fly! Let this night trans - port our souls let

31

this be a ho-li-day rich with wis - dom Pray that the world or those that get to de - cide take a deep breath and lis-ten to___ our voice act on what sci-ence has been say - ing and stop to de - lay: This is ur - gent! Let us hope fu-ture will tell that these hu - mans did well! That we're saved by this year end bell!_____

41