Conclusion (small notes optional)

It could have been a big mess but it wasn't thanks to Mar - ga-ret!

A round in two parts, with string quartet, and unison conclusion. String players may also sing. Form is flexible (e.g string quartet enters first/last, instruments enter one at a time under voices, etc.) Eventually all in unison for the conclusion: strings (any octaves) and voices. Option: Continue cello and/or viola (first part) into the conclusion.
