

May Aufderheide

b. 1888 in Indianapolis, IN

d. 1972 in Pasadena, CA

- cousin Frieda Aufderheide was also a composer, wrote "The Flyer Rag" (1908)
- father J.H. Aufderheide founded music publishing business to publish her work following popularity of her first published composition, "Dusty."
- married in 1908 and moved to Richmond, IN
- stopped composing shortly after marriage

Works:

1908

Dusty Rag

The Richmond Rag

1909

The Thriller!

Buzzer Rag

I'll Pledge My Heart to You

1910

Blue Ribbon Rag

A Totally Different Rag

A Totally Different Rag Song (with Earle C. Jones)

In Bamboo Land (with Jones)

My Girl of the Golden Days (with Jones)

1911

Novelty Rag

Pompeian Waltzes

Pelham Waltzes

I Want a Patriotic Girl (with Bobby Jones)

Drifting in Dreams With You/Gee But I Think a Lot About You (with Rudolph Aufderheide)

You and Me in Summertime (with R. Aufderheide)

I Want a Real Lovin' Man (with Paul Pratt)

1912

Dusty Rag Song (with Will Callahan)