

THREE WORKERS' ROUNDS^{*}

The Three Brothers

Words and Music by
L. E. Swift (1934)

Lively

A There are three broth-ers named Du - pont. Pa - tri - ots are
 B They love their coun - try right or
 C al - ways ver - y cheer-ful - ly to an - y na - tion

A they. They make their prof-its from mu-ni - tions in an hon - est way.
 B wrong. But when yen or li - ras come a - long — They
 C sell shells that will all ar - mor pierce And ar - mor that will stop each shell.

Words by
Fred Rolland

Not If, But When **

Music by Carl Sands
(1934)

Gaily

A Oh joy up - on this earth — to live and see the day When
 B Rock - e - fel - ler sen - ior shall up to me and say:
 C "Com - rade can you spare a dime?" Oh

Charlie Schwab

Words and Music by
Carl Sands (1934)

Fast

A Schwab, Schwab, Char-lie Schwab! Life and hap-pi - ness you rob
 B From the work-ers in your mills, From the min-ers in your hills.
 C Says you: "Bake my cake, you slaves, and I'll eat it"
 D We can bake and eat it too, Char-lie Schwab, beat it!

*For instructions on the performance of rounds see Workers' Song Book No. 1, 1934.

 To conclude: stop together at (∩)