

haiga for douglas and Amy hanging around in the house, just taking up space

Part	Word	Notes
1	amy	1 note
2	douglas	2 notes
3	kitties	3 notes
4	worms	4 notes
5	cds	5 notes
6	books	6 notes
7	junk	7 notes
8	whatever	8 notes

A round in 8 parts. Any pitches, or spoken. No two notes happen at the same time.
Use one word per line, or make up your own words as things change. Use any of the notes in a line, or all of them. Any tempo is fine.
