

Billy Taylor's Glasses

with thanks to Hesh Reinfeld for this title

David Mahler

November 2012, Pgh

Swing, swang, swung

1 (Bill) - y Tay-lor's glass-es, win - dows to the mind of jazz. (I'm dig-gin' it— some frames.) Bill -

2 y Tay-lor's glass-es, oh man! Ver - y Har - ry Car-ay Look in, look out!
Don't swing this measure.

3 Bill - y Tay-lor's glass-es, oh Bill - y had a lot to say a - bout how it feels to be free. Bill -

- y Tay-lor's glass-es. Hey! Look in, look out. Hey! Look in, look out. Hey! Look in, look out. Look OUT!

Bill - y Tay-lor's glass-es. Hey! Look in, look out. Hey! Look in, look out. Hey! Look in, look out. Look OUT!

- y Tay-lor's glass-es. Hey! Look in, look out. Hey! Look in, look out. Hey! Look in, look out. Look OUT!

Sing the four measures of the three parts at the top of the page as a standard round, moving from line to line and repeating, until a signal is given to move together to the bottom three lines, singing whichever line corresponds to the line you had just completed singing. One time through whichever line you're on at the bottom will be just right.