Structured group improv piece.
Each performer comes up with a rhythmic motif.
Play motif using the notes in the given chords in each time.
Play only one note at a time, but arpeggiate as you wish.
Come up with a new rhythm motif with each repeat.
 Entire group begins and ends together.
Start soft, end loud.
This is a group improv piece.

1. As a group, choose a subject matter.
2. Each person thinks of a word related to that subject matter.
3. Turn your word into a musical motif.
4. As a group, keep a steady tempo.
5. One by one, enter, and start singing/chanting your motif over and over.
6. Repeat for as long as you want, and then exit.
