

Four Solo Wind Pieces

(all things... series)

Explanatory Note:

These four pieces for solo winds are all part of the same piece, computer composed, and in some sense software clones of each other. They can be played individually, as a set of movements (any combination of them) and in the case of the saxophone piece (all things, beings, equal) and the flute piece (cinderella), as a duet as well.

Their timings are:

all things, beings, equal	4 minutes	sax
Approaching the azimuth	3 minutes	clarinet
two minute warning	2 minutes	trumpet
cinderella	4 minutes	flute
